IN consequence of the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY CALENDAR for the year 1797 being deemed too prolix and expensive, the following abridgment is offered; which, it is presumed, will meet with general approbation.

That in a publication of this nature, some little inaccuracies may unavoidably have occurred, the Editor is well aware; but as no pains on his part have been spared to obtain an exact statement of all the principal Scholarships and Exhibitions at each College, and information in no instance (except one) has been withheld, he with confidence presents it to the public.

With respect to the omission of the names of the Incumbents and the value of the Livings, the Editor has to observe, that he had no means of gaining satisfactory intelligence, and that it was by particular desire they were not inserted.

Should

Should the present improved edition meet with encouragement, a similar publication will appear at the commencement of the ensuing year, when every attention will be paid to render it a work still more deserving of public patronage.

No pains will be spared to prevent in future the recurrence of the delay, which from unforeseen circumstances has attended this first attempt.

For the very liberal and handsome manner in which information has been afforded, the Editor begs leave to express his sincerest gratitude, to the Tutors of the respective Colleges in particular, and his Friends in general.

TRIN. HALL.

* * Any future additions or corrections addressed (if by letter, post paid) to Mr. FLOWER, Publisher and Printer of the CAMBRIDGE INTELLIGENCER, or Mr. NICHOLSON, Bookseller and Stationer, Trumpington Street, Cambridge, will be thankfully received.

St. PETER'S COLLEGE.

AT this college there are 7 north and 7 south fellows, on the foundation, and 8 bye-fellows, who are eligible to no one office in the college, and are perfectly distinct from those on the foundation. The scholarships at this college are 48 in number, which are paid in proportion to residence. A few of them are in the patronage of Lord Melbourne. The best scholarship here is not worth more than 13l. per ann. There are here no exhibitions for any public or private school. The place of librarian worth 16l. per ann. is usually bestowed on a sizar.

CLARE-HALL.

IN this college there are 10 senior, 2 middle, 5 junior and 3 bye-fellowships. It is open to all counties; but in order to restrain the same family, or county, from gaining too much influence, the statutes ordain, 1st. that no more than 2 fellows of the same county can be of the seniority. 2dly. That in the seniority, there cannot be a majority of men born in counties north of the Trent. No restrictions take place in the middle and junior fellowships; of the three bye-fellowships, two are appropriated to Kent, and one to Norfolk. The revenues and preferment of this college are very good.

There are about 30 scholarships, from 2s. to 7s. a week value, left by different benefactors to the college. Besides 4 exhibitions of 9l. a year each, founded by Archdeacon Johnson, for persons educated at Oakham and Uppingham schools. There is one scholarship of 12s. a week, which if not claimed by a Baker's son, is given to a Clergyman's orphan: one of 6s. 8d. per week to a scholar from Hull school, as well as another of nearly the same value to a scholar from Wakefield school.

An annual prize of 10 guineas is given to a Bachelor of Arts, who may compose the best dissertation (which is recited on the 4th of November, in the hall of the college,) on the character of King William the III.

There are also two annual prizes of 6 guineas each given to the Questionists; one to the best proficient in learning, the other as a reward for regularity and general good conduct.

PEMBROKE HALL.

THE fellowships in this college, 15 in number, are open to men of all counties. There are also several scholarships belonging to this society, which in point of value are inconsiderable, being worth only from 5 to 10l. per annum. Besides which, there are five or six founded by one Parkins, a citizen of London, to be given to superannuated scholars from Merchant Taylor's school; the value of each is 30l. per annum, and may be held 7 years. In case there are no claimants, they are (without any restriction) in the gift of the master.

Parkins also founded a scholarship to be given to a student of this college, who shall have had his education at the free school of Bowes, in Yorkshire.

There is another scholarship of 36l. per ann. left by a Dr. Stuart, for a superannuated Merchant Taylor's man; also scholarships of 20l. each, (the present value) left by Serjeant Moses, to scholars chosen from Christ's Hospital. There are also four or five scholarships from 4 to 6l. per annum each, which are usually given to fizarars.

Dr. Long, late master of the college, erected a sphere, and ordered that the keeper of the key should be allowed 6l. per ann. which is always bestowed upon an undergraduate.

There are also 3 Canterbury scholars provided for by the said Archbishop, at about 50*s.* a year, and 3 rooms assigned to them. Also 2 Eastbridge scholars, who receive nearly the same emolument as the Canterbury.

1577. Sir N. Bacon settled upon the college an annuity of 20*l.* per annum, for 6 scholars, with the privilege of 3 rooms.

TRINITY HALL.

AT this college there are 12 fellowships; 10 of which are held by laymen, the other 2 are called divinity fellowships. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the divinity fellowships, the fellows are not necessarily obliged to elect a member of their own society, and they in general give the preference to the most learned and respectable candidate of a different college. The 2 fellowships are now held by fellows formerly of Queen's college. The lay fellowships are held by those who have taken their degrees in law; the succession is very slow, for it is esteemed so honourable to be a lay-fellow at this, as Tusser expresses it, Hall surpassing all, that few who may have been so fortunate as to be elected, ever wish to resign so desirable a post. In the choice of a fellow there is no preference to counties, but the statutes ordain that no fellowship is tenable with a living, however inconsiderable as to value.

The number of scholarships on the foundation is 14, which are worth 5s. 3d. per week each, a member must have been a scholar 3 years before he can offer himself a candidate for a lay-fellowship. There are two scholarships on a different foundation worth 15l. each. Also one scholarship, to which is annexed the office of librarian, which is always given to a fizar, and for which he receives 25l. per annum.

GONVIL OR CAIUS COLLEGE.

IN this college there are 29 fellowships; 12 are called senior fellowships, of the original charter; of these 3 are of the old foundation, open to all counties, and also to laymen; 3 founded by Dr. Caius, to be possessed by Norfolk men, two of whom must be physicians; and the remaining 6 all by different founders, 2 confined to the Norwich diocese, and the other 4 open to all counties; 1 of the 6 is open to laymen.—Eight are termed junior fellowships, open to all counties and likewise to laymen, except one, which must be held by a priest born in the Norwich diocese: from these 8, the senior fellowships are elected. And 9 are commonly called bye-fellowships; 6 founded by Dr. Perse, open to all counties and to laymen, and the remaining 3 by Mr. Wortley, one of which is confined to Devon. ## KING'S COLLEGE

THIS royal foundation consists of a provost and 70 fellows or scholars; the latter to be supplied by regular succession, from Eton college, which was founded and endowed by King Henry VI. about the same time with this college: the time of election of scholars into the royal foundation of Eton college, is about the end of July, or beginning of August; on any vacancy in King's college, they are admitted upon that foundation, and after the expiration of three years from the day of their admission, are chosen fellows. King's college has some peculiar privileges; the provost has absolute authority within the precincts of the college, and by a special composition between this college and the University, its undergraduates are exempt from the power of the proctors and other University officers within the limits of the college; neither by usage do they keep any public exercises in the schools, or are like others examined for their Bachelor of Art's degree.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

AT this college there are 19, what are called foundation fellowships, (two of which are appropriated to the county of York) beside 1 bye-fellowship. The restriction in the choice of the rest of the fellows is, that there cannot be more than one of a county, except where they have estates; though they frequently have a dispensation from the King to elect one fellow more from any county. There are also 45 scholarships and 8 exhibitions, the value of which the Editor is prevented giving to the public.

CATHERINE HALL.

The fellowships at this college are 13 in number, six on the college foundation; six give a preference to those born in Yorkshire, and in failure of them to men born in the county of Lincoln; and one is appropriated to Coventry school. There are also several scholarships and exhibitions: which (ten excepted) are all open to men of any county. These ten founded by Mrs. Mary Ramsden of Norton, Yorkshire, (who likewise founded six Yorkshire fellowships) give in like manner a preference to Yorkshire men, and next to candidates born in the county of Lincoln.

There is also a Frankland scholarship of 10*l.* per annum, appropriated to one educated at Tamworth school.

A prize of 5*l.* worth of Books is given on the last Thursday in June, to the best proficient in classics, on Mrs. Ramsden's foundation. The examiners are the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, and Greek Professor.

JESUS COLLEGE.

THE number of foundation fellowships at this college was only 6, but it has since been increased by different benefactors to 16, one of which was founded by John Boyston, master of the college: The restriction here is, that eight shall be held by persons born in counties North, and eight by those born in counties South of the Trent. The election of fellows in this college is not vested in the hands of the society: on every vacancy the fellows nominate two candidates, and the bishop of the diocese elects one of them; but there is one fellowship to which the Bishop has an exclusive right both to nominate and appoint.

The declamation prizes of this college consist of books, to the value of about 3*l*.

CHRIST'S COLLEGE.

In this college there are 15 fellowships: 12 of which

 VIII. with very large revenues, and are open to all counties, but with this restriction that there cannot be more than one fellow of a County at the same time, except in Yorkshire, where there may be two; the holders of these 12 fellowships must take orders within 12 months of their election, provided their age will admit of it, or, within four months after they have attained that age. King Edward VI. added another fellowship, and more were afterwards founded, jointly by Sir John Brouncker, and by Sir Thomas Baines:—Those who can show relationship to the founders of the two latter, or a prior claim, they are not required to take orders, nor is there any restriction with regard to county. Lady Margaret at the same time founded 47 scholarships, with the restriction that not more than 3 of them are to be held at the same time, by men of the same county.
 Thomas Plume, archdeacon of Rochester, bequeathed

* Men that are in full orders, by putting their names on the books and letting them remain thereon for ten years are entitled to the degree of A. B. and are for this reason called ten-men, or ten-year men; they are called also twenty-four-men in Trinity college, and some other colleges, because they must be in full orders before they can enter their names, which obliges them to be 24 years of age. By a late Grace of the University, ten-men are obliged to reside in college terms.

EMANUEL COLLEGE.

THE number of fellows upon the foundation of the college is 13, to become a candidate it is not necessary to be of any particular county. But there is this restriction, there cannot be more than one fellow of the same county, at the same time: besides the foundation fellowships there are two founded by Sr. Wolston Dr. but the possessors of these have no vote in any college affairs, nor have they a claim to any living of the college. To be elected a Dixie fellow, it is requisite that you either prove yourself related to that family, or that you have had your education at Market Bosworth school in Leicestershire. The scholarships upon the foundation are open to all counties, but restricted to three of the same county at the same time: besides which there are fellowships, exhibitions and prizes, as follow:

SCHOLARSHIPS.

- Two By Sir W. Dixie
- Two — Dr. Brainthwaite
- Two — John Browne, B. D.

EXHIBITIONS.

- Four By Lady Grace Mildway
- Four — Dr. Whichcot
- Ten — F. Ashe, Esq.
- Two — Mr. Hobbs
- Four — Mr. Robert Johnson
- Two — Mrs. Ann Hunt
- Two — Mr. Walter Richards

One By Mr. Wells

One — N. Aspinal.

None of the preceding scholarships exceed 10l. ann. each: but two or three are generally consolidated and given to the most deserving student.

Mr. Thorpe also founded 5 exhibitions of the value 4l. per ann. each: to hold which, six months residence is required beginning at Michaelmas. Mr. Hubbard added 10l. per ann. to be bestowed on the most able scholar on that foundation.

Professor Harwood has also founded a scholarship of 10l. per ann. with preference to a medical student.

There are at this college 2 annual prizes for the two best declamations, one of the value of 5 guineas, the other of 2 guineas, to be expended in Books.

Also a silver cup of the value of 12l. for the best performance amongst the commencing Bachelors of Arts.

* Originally the Vice-Chancellor's and Proctor's Senior Optima were men of superior attainments, and distinguished by their merit. Afterwards names were inserted in the first Tripos by preference, without regard to merit. This privilege was very properly waived in the year 1793, and has never since, (except in one instance) been claimed. It is to be hoped the custom will never be revived.

particular request, the following short History of the Institution, and Statement of the present circumstances of Addenbrooke's Hospital is added, with the hope that so benevolent an institution, by being more ge-neraly known, may meet with still more liberal support.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL.

A noble and humane institution stands at the head of the Town of Cambridge. It is a commodious building. John Addenbrooke, M. D. formerly of Catharine-Hall, left 4000*l*. and appointed trustees who purchased a piece of ground, built the Hospital and partly furnished it, but the money which remained being insufficient for the support of it, an act of Parliament was obtained to make it a General Hospital, and was opened at Michaelmas 1766, and has since been continually improved, and amply supported, by generous contributions, large yearly contributions, the produce of the Hospital, &c. &c.—The number of Patients annually cured is upon an average 700. In April 1766, the Trustees of the said Hospital published the following Statement of their affairs.

For the purchase of a garden and other tenements, for the site of the Hospital, amounted to — — and the remainder was laid out by the Trustees use of the Hospital. This sum by savings from factions, &c. has since been increased to 7000£.
